Benefits of the PPMR

- Facilitated product transfers between countries
- Facilitated emergency shipments to prevent or alleviate stockout
- Provides another forum for communication of needs from donor to country and vice versa
- Increasingly allows donors to anticipate responses and coordinate actions
Challenges

• Not intention that donors respond to every situation

• Current PPMR system needs upgrade

• Sometimes difficult to get reliable data
Responding to Challenges: New PPMR System

- Able to include more countries
- Data available at any time through the Internet
- Data providers can continue to send data offline
West and Central Africa PPMR: Targeted Countries

- Burkina Faso
- Cameroon
- Cape Verde
- Chad
- Cote d’Ivoire
- Equatorial Guinea
- Gabon
- The Gambia
- Guinea-Bissau
- Mauritania
- Niger
- Sao Tome & Principe
- Sierra Leone
- Togo

West and Central African countries already in the PPMR are shown in dark blue. Potential new countries are shown in light blue.
Data Collection: Make It Easy for Countries

- Typical level of effort: 2-6 hours
- Data collection schedule is flexible
